History Fair Reminders & Checklist

o Projects are due on 1/9 and 1/10 (depending on the day you have class)

o NO LATE PROJECTS WILL BE ACCEPTED

o The 4 things being turned in on the due date are:

  1. Project

  2. Process Paper

  3. Annotated Bibliography

  4. Title Page

o Check with the website Ms. Edwards created if you are unclear on something (https://mscoachedwards.weebly.com/history-fair.html)

o Double check with the rules and guidelines for your specific project to make sure everything is in order o Exhibit guidelines: https://www.nhd.org/sites/default/files/Exhibit-Rules-Verification-Sheet.pdf

o Documentary guidelines: https://www.nhd.org/sites/default/files/Documentary-Rules-Verification-Sheet.pdf

o Performance guidelines: https://www.nhd.org/sites/default/files/Performance-Rules-Verification-Sheet.pdf

o Website guidelines: https://www.nhd.org/sites/default/files/Website-Rules-Verification-Sheet.pdf

o Use the above links as a checklist to avoid any deduction in points from missing elements

o For those doing a documentary place video on a flash drive (upload to Youtube as a backup in case flash drive doesn't work for some reason)

o For those doing a website make sure all images and videos are working correctly o Judges (including myself) will be looking for some key things in all projects:

  ◊ Should be historically accurate

  ◊ Clearly tied to the theme (Tragedy & Triumph)

  ◊ Well organized, original, and clear

  ◊ Shows a wide range of research, analysis, and interpretation

- ◊ Good use of multimedia (images, videos, etc.)
- o Any form of plagiarism will result in an automatic zero
